

Interview - Senior HR Business Partner

How or why did you enter your industry?

- I had a strong passion for construction.

What are the barriers/obstacles of being a woman in this industry?

- We are the minority in the construction world

Why do you think there are so few females in the industry and what would you do to change that?

- I believe hearing from a female in the construction industry would help other females know that they aren't alone and the number of females is growing.

What does an average day in your work life look like?

- I am the primary recruiter for all of our salaried, co-ops, interns and high school students. The bulk of my time is recruiting, attending job fairs and getting new hires ready to start with us.

What would you title your autobiography?

- The strongest woman there ever was

What is your favorite hobby?

- Going to sporting events

What is your go to song at karaoke?

- Goodbye Earl

What is advice you would give your younger self?

- Don't sweat the small stuff, the future is bright.

What do you like most about your work?

- Interacting with people

What is the best career advice you have ever been given?

- Learn as much as you can and ask questions.

What was your first job?

- Cashier at a grocery store.